By EDWARD W. PICKARD. Germany, Austria and Turkey were on the anxious seat last week; and various other nations were only less concerned. For the supreme council of the ailies was in session in Paris discussing reparations, disarmament, the salvation of Austria and the revision of the treaty of Sevres. Between sessions Premier Lloyd George lunched and dined and talked in private with Premier Briand, and gradually won him over to a policy of greater conciliation. It is probable that this was quite agreeable to M. Briand, but he had to put up some argument to satisfy the French people, who are doomed German government will not recognize One minor road in the Southeast alto disappointment.

I. The Tribute Money (vv. 15-22). The Pharisees and Herodians pur posed to entrap Jesus and bring Him Into conflict with the Roman government, so they came to Him with the subtle question, "Is it lawful to give tribute to Caesar or not?" At this time the Jews were galling under the yoke of the Roman government. Some even denied the right to pay tribute to the government. To have answered this question by "yes" or "no" would have involved difficulties. To have answered "yes" would have conveyed the impression of endorsement of all that the Roman government did. To have answered "no" would have at once brought Him into conflict with the government. It is not an easy matter for a Christian always to determine his right relation to civil government. Many a minister has made a failure of his work because he tried to solve the problem. Christ's reply to this question, properly understood and applied, is the final word on the subject. Until the civil authorities demand of us that which is a violation of God's law, we are bound to render unto them obedience, "Render unto Caesar the things that are Caesar's' means the highest obligation. Mix all the dry ingredients together; add the dates and nuts; stir in the eggs beaten well, and bake in as thin a sheet as can be spread. When done, cut in small squares and roll into balls. Roll in granulated sugar before serving. Cheese Bundles.-Take neat strips of cheese cut half an inch thick, and roll each carefully in a thin slice of dried beef; lay on silces of well-buttered whole-wheat bread and bake in a hot oven six to eight minutes, or until the cheese melts and the bread browns. Garnish with parsley and sweet pickles and serve with hot chocolate for Sunday night lunch or sup-

Mashed Potatoes With Peanut But. ter.-Boll and mash a half-dozen medium-sized potatoes; add two tablespoonfuls of butter, one-half cupful of hot milk, one and one-half tablespoonfuls of peanut butter, one teaspoonful of salt and a few dashes of white pepper. Blend a tablespoonful each of butter and peanut butter and spread over the top. The butter as seasoning may be divided and used as a top garnish. Brown in the oven. Lemon Dumplings .- Mix the grated rind and juice of a lemon with one cupful of molasses, one-half cupful of sugar, one tablespoonful of butter and our duty to owe all allegiance to Him, one cupful of hot water, then add to this boiling mixture simple dumplings, using one egg, two teaspoonfuls of baking powder, one cupful of flour. one-half teaspoonful of salt and milk to make a drop batter. Cover closely and boll 20 minutes, using care that the mixture does not burn. Orange and Onion Salad .- Peel and slice two oranges; slice one-half of a large Spanish onion and and arrange the orange and onion slices on lettuce Serve with French dressing. This amount serves four, generously.

Oat and Cornmeal Muffins.-Melt two tablespoonfuls of shortening in one cupful of hot cooked oatmeal: add one teaspoonful of salt and one egg beaten light, with three-fourths of a cupful of milk. Mix all together thoroughly. Mix and sift together two cupfuls of cornmeal, four teaspoonfuls of baking powder, one-fourth of a cupful of sugar, and stir into the first mixture; bake in a hot oven in a wellgreased muffin pan about twenty-five Vellie Maxwell Pluck and Poverty.

Not the least admirable characteristic of men and women who have had a life-iong struggle against poverty is that they have struggled against it purely for the sake of self-respect. There is perhaps no more heroic figure than that of the careful little mother of a family who week by week tackles the meager family budget with a gallant determination to make the most of it and to rest content at that. Less plucky spirits "let things manage themselves," fall into debt, and in general follow a haphazard mode of life.

Waters of Lake Drawn Off.

After gaining a reputation among fishermen and camping parties by many years of reliable behavior, Parmella lake, in the mountains of western Oregon, suddenly sprung a leak last summer like a punctured basin, says Popular Mechanics Magazine, Toward the end of the season the water surface had shrunk to a few acres, all the rest having drained out through fissures in the bottom, enlarged, apparently, by some subterranean disturbance.
